2 Corinthians 5:14–15 (ESV)

¹⁴ For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; ¹⁵ and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

COMPELLED

June 2025 will mark the 35th time the LCMS congregations of Florida and Georgia formally gather in convention in Orlando. This year's convention theme, "Compelled!" from 2 Corinthians 5:14–15, challenges us to consider what truly drives our ministry and daily lives. As I help prepare for our 35th gathering, I'm reflecting on how Christ's love—not duty or tradition—moves us to action.

In the book, "Why I Love The Apostle Paul: 30 Reasons by John Pieper," I encountered a striking description of the love of Christ which Paul modeled in the chapter "Unwavering Love For Those Who Scoured Him."

In the list of Paul's sufferings (2 Cor 11:23–33), the one that moves me most and makes me cringe with each added instance is the one he describes by saying, "Five times I received at the hands of the Jews the forty lashes less one" (v. 24). Three things make this seem to me the most horrible.

First, there is the sheer number of lashes—thirty-nine in each flogging. Second, those thirty-nine lashes happened five times, presumably on the same scarred back. Third, it was the Jews—his own kindred, as he calls them elsewhere (Rom 9:3)—who were doing the scourging.

...These five scourgings were not a marginal part of Paul's life. By the end of all five scourgings, his back must have been a tangle of raw, tender, stiff scar tissue that probably made his movements painful.

...The reason I say, "Try to imagine this," is not mainly to create a sense of the physical agony, but to create a sense of what you might feel toward God and your adversaries, the Jewish people. We have already seen how Paul refused to be angry at God, though he knew that one word from God, and his persecutors would be struck blind (which actually happened on the island of Cyprus, Acts 13:11)—something God chose not to do during these five scourgings.

CHRIST'S
LOVE
COMPELS US.

2 Corinthians 5:14 NIV

That is amazing enough—that Paul would see a second, then a third, then a fourth, then a fifth flogging coming, and not curse God. But add to this amazement that he never stopped loving his Jewish people, who actually did the flogging. If this happened over and over when he preached in the Roman world, why would he keep going back?

Paul's life shows us that being "compelled" by Christ's love isn't about comfort or recognition—it's about sacrificial outreach, even to those who oppose us. This strikes at the heart of our convention theme.

"Christ's love compels us!" is not a conference slogan designed to separate Lutheran Christians off into a single conference room and to generate sappy spiritual fervor. It is not to bring in beautiful music and well-polished speakers with a glossy veneer to preach to the choir about how wonderful it is to be a baptized Lutheran.

St. Paul endured unimaginable suffering—five times receiving thirty-nine lashes from his own people. Yet, he never stopped loving them or sharing the gospel. What could drive such relentless compassion? Only the compelling love of Christ.

What about me? What about you? Does the love of Christ compel you to love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you? Does it compel you to bless those who curse you or pray for those who abuse you?

If you cannot name anyone who considers you an "enemy" then ask yourself who makes me angry? When and where do bitterness and resentment spring up in my heart? Whose comments, emails, or social media posts triggers my blood pressure to skyrocket?

This year I find our conference theme personally challenging. It leads me to repent of my own anger, bitterness, and resentment toward others. It leads me to ask God to create in me a clean heart that is compelled to love my enemies and to ask God for ways to proclaim His salvation in Jesus to them. It leads me to be thankful for the mercy and grace that God has shown to me...and then to extend that grace to others.

May you join me in praying for our district convention and in living out the convention theme in our daily lives.

HURRICANE SEASON Is Upon Us!

The 2024 Hurricane Season is from June 1 to November 30

Be proactive in this year's storm season and have a plan, stock up your preparedness kit and know your Flood Zones!

If you are in a low lying, flood prone area, now is a great time to reach out to your friends and family and plan your evacuation routes.

HAVE A PLAN!

Your plan should contain:

- Phone numbers of a pre-assigned contact person for family members to call
- List and contact information of family members, friends, neighbors and physicians
- A safe place to store important documents in a waterproof container or bag
- How you will get assistance if needed for older adults or those with functional needs in the home
- How to turn off the water, gas and electricity safely
- Plan to evacuate early in the storm trajectories, as the closer the storm gets, the traffic in the evacuation routes backs up quickly, causing major delays and safe space hotels get more difficult to find.

Your hurricane supply kit should contain:

- 7-day supply of non-perishable foods
- 7-day supply of water (one gallon per person per day, including pets)
- A manual can opener
- Battery-powered portable television or radio with extra batteries
- Flashlight with extra batteries
- First aid kit and manual
- Sanitation and hygiene items, such as instant hand sanitizing gel, disinfectant wipes, moist towelettes, toilet paper, and feminine hygiene products
- Thermometer with batteries, if required
- Matches in a waterproof container
- Cash
- Extra clothing, blankets and sleeping bags
- Photocopies of identification, insurance, prescriptions, household inventory, credit cards and your utility bill
- Copies of important documents such as birth certificates, adoption certificates, marriage licenses, divorce papers, Social Security cards, passport, green cards, will, insurance policies (home, auto, life, health, etc.), bank statements
- Prescription medications, eyeglasses, contact lens solution and hearing aid
- Batteries
- Telephone that is not dependent on electricity and/or a cell phone
- Solar Chargers for phones/devices
- Pet carriers, leashes, shot records, and food for each animal evacuating with you

KNOW YOUR FLOOD ZONE!

If you live in Charlotte County you can visit: <https://www.charlottecountyfl.gov/departments/public-safety/emergency-management/know-your-zone.shtml>

Sarasota County you can visit: <https://www.scgov.net/government/public-works/flood-maps> to find out if you are in a flood zone evacuation area

*Be gracious to me, O God...For my soul takes refuge in You; And in the shadow of Your wings
I WILL TAKE REFUGE
Until destruction passes by.*

DAILY LECTIONARY

This outline is a devotional reading plan that covers the entire Sacred Scriptures each year. The selections are based on ancient models and are generally in harmony with the liturgical church year. The average reading is three chapters daily. A seasonal canticle is assigned for each month and is scheduled to replace the psalm on the first and last days of the month.

All of the psalms are read twice a year

ARMED FORCES SUNDAY

We want to thank and acknowledge everyone for their generous donations and many cards we received for our military.

This year we achieved our goal to send each $100 in gift cards.

We also wanted to acknowledge the fine needlework of Gayle Groen for the pocket prayer shawls that were sent to our military. We know they all will feel supported!!

Armed Forces Team

HELP IS NEEDED PLEASE!

our prayer garden team will be down a member for the next month.

They could use some helpers on Wednesdays (or another day if your schedule will allow). They usually clean up along Luther Rd. starting about 8:40am and then focus work on the Prayer Park garden area around 9:15am and 9:30am. If anyone is available to assist for at least the next month (longer is always welcomed), please reach out to Ruth Albert or Rosemary Kraning.

WELCOME TO OUR STEPHEN MINISTRY

JESUS OUR FRIEND

“A man of many companions may come to ruin, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.”

Proverbs 18:24 (ESV)

Joseph Scriven, the author of the hymn, “WHAT A FRIEND WE HAVE IN JESUS” LSB 770, wrote this hymn because he experienced the friendship of Jesus throughout a life that was filled with personal tragedy. When Scriven was a young man in Ireland, his fiancée accidentally drowned on the eve of their wedding. He left Ireland and headed for Canada because it seemed he wanted to live his life alone. He considered Jesus as his only close friend. It was while he was in Canada that he became a friend to those in need and was known as the “Good Samaritan of Port Hope.” When Scriven was on his death bed a friend who came to visit him noticed a scrap of paper with the words written on it. The friend asked him, “Did you write this?” Scriven replied, “Well not completely, The Lord and I did it between us.”

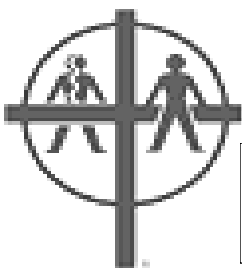

This is what your Stephen Ministers are “A Friend Who Cares”. They feel that it is a “privilege to carry everything to God in Prayer”. Stephen Ministers open their arms in Christian love much like Christ opened his arms on the Cross for all. If you need “A Friend Who Cares” is trained and available for you.

Please contact one of the Stephen Leaders, Pastor Stolarczyk, David Gruntman or Carolyn Lawson who will talk with you about the Stephen Ministry Program and will assign the Stephen Minister that best meets your needs.

Jesus said “No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you.”

John 15:15 (ESV)

The Stephen Series logo symbolizes that we all are broken people and that it is through the cross of Jesus that we are made whole.

THE KINGDOM OF GOD GROWS!

Lillia Ingrid Vanover was born into this world on December 22, 2024.

Her parents are Richard & Kira Vanover.

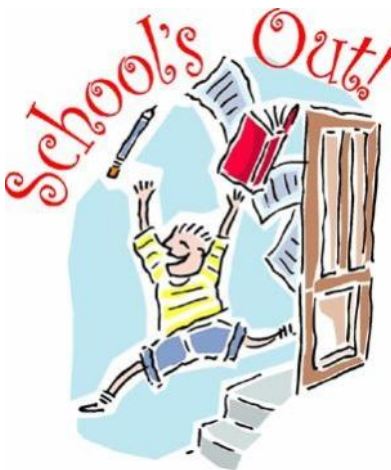

Her sponsors are Nick & Adair Turturro.

May 18th, Lillia was inducted into the heavenly Kingdom by the promises of Holy Baptism.

As the work on our master calendar begins just around the corner, now is the time for your LCC groups to begin thinking about what you may be planning and doing 2025 / 2026.

There's no better time to be thinking about what you may want to see listed on the church's master calendar. As you know—the more we plan ahead, the better we can communicate and arrange for space and have successful turnout so that we can seek to do these fun things again and again! Please reach out to Jennifer if you have any ideas for events LCC could begin to look at for the next year!

SUMMER BIBLE STUDIES JUNE & JULY

Join us for a four-week journey through the opening chapters (1–6) of the book of Daniel. Sunday School accounts of the three men thrown into the fiery furnace and the 80 year old man dropped into the pit of hungry lions are translated into our everyday life experiences. We will again meet these exiled young men and hear about how they face living in exile—and remaining in exile—while trusting that God is in control.

Due to copyright considerations, we will not be using our traditional methods of streaming to Facebook and YouTube.

Instead, we will create a private meeting room using Zoom.com.

If you are interested in joining remotely please contact the church office where we will supply the meeting link and the meeting log in and password.
